

A STORY TO TELL

The 50-year history of The United States Pony Clubs, Inc.

In this hard-bound, coffee table publication, read about the founding of Pony Club and share a wealth of memories from members and volunteers throughout the years. This book originally retailed for $30, but the special price for USPC alumni is just $12.50 when you use this order form.

A STORY TO TELL - USPC 50th Anniversary Print

This signed and numbered "18x24" print by well-known artist Booth Malone graces the cover of the USPC history book A Story To Tell. This limited edition print is ready to be framed and there are less than 100 still available. Retailing in the Bookstore for $30.00, it is offered with this order form for $25.00.

FLASH - Collectible Breyer® USPC 50th Anniversary Model

Flash was chosen as the USPC 50th Anniversary Breyer Horse Model through an essay contest. With more than 100 entries, Flash, a 14.1 h, Morgan Horse, was selected as the horse or pony most representative of a Pony Club mount. Flash spent most of his 27 years with the Mt. Kearsarge Pony Club in New Hampshire, and served several generations of Pony Club members. Retailing originally at $37.95, he is available with this order form at $30.00.

ALUMNI PIN

You may not be a Pony Club member any more, but you can still show your Pony Club pride with this pin. Don't leave home without it! $3.00 each.
