From: Dr. Alex Tabibi – CEO of State Line Tack

Dear USPC Member,

I wanted to personally let you know that State Line Tack is under new management. We at PetsUnited are thrilled to announce our recent acquisition of State Line Tack from PetSmart.

During the next couple of months we will be transitioning to a new facility; we appreciate your patience during this period. Also, State Line Tack departments within PetSmart Stores will soon be closing. However, the full selection of quality equine products you have come to expect from State Line Tack will continue to be sold, both through the website, www.statelinetack.com, and through the Stateline Tack catalog.

On behalf of my entire team, I would like to thank you and the USPC for your support of us, our products and our company. We are proud to have such a wonderful customer base, and take great satisfaction in meeting and exceeding your expectations. As a sign of our appreciation, we are including a 10% off coupon, good online for on all in-stock products, until June 30th. Use CODE SAVE0507A online at checkout.

Again, we thank you and wish you and your horses all the best!
