Dear Center Administrators

In this time of uncertainty, please note some resources for your consideration as a small business.

Note: This is not a complete list, nor is the information consistent across the USA or even across your home state. However, it is intended to give you someplace to start your research in the event that you are seeking resources for managing the current crisis.

United States Chamber of Commerce - www.uschamber.gov.html

United States Department of Agriculture - www.usda.gov.html

Small Business Association - www.sba.gov.html

In addition to these helpful links, the United States Eventing Association published an article last week with information that would be helpful to equine businesses of any discipline or focus. <https://useventing.com/news-media/news/resources-for-eventing-businesses-and-non-profits-impacted-by-covid-19>

Be well and stay safe,

Lorelei Wilson Coplen
