Corporate and Life Members have voting privileges, normally exercised at the Annual Meeting of the Corporation in person or by proxy. Corporate Members must pay the required annual Corporate Membership dues established by the Board in accordance with the By-Laws. Life Members must pay the required one-time Membership dues established by the Board in accordance with the By-Laws. Corporate and Life Members may also have membership in another category. However, the dues required are separate and distinct.

Any specific delegation of authority hereinafter made in these By-Laws shall be subject to the review, control and oversight of the Board.

5.2 Composition of Board. The Board shall consist of not less than nine Governors or more than thirty-five Governors. The number of Governors shall be fixed by the Corporate Members at the Annual Meeting of the Corporation. All Governors must be Corporate Members.

5.3 Election and Term. Each Governor to succeed a retiring Governor shall be elected by the Corporate Members to a three-year term. Should the Corporate Members increase the number of Governors, they shall also designate for those Governors a one, two or three year term to ensure that the terms of approximately one-third of the Governors shall expire each year. The term of each Governor shall commence upon his or her election and shall expire upon the election of Governors at the Annual Meeting after expiration of his or her term. Except as provided below for Executive Officers, no person may serve more than six consecutive years as a Governor, provided that any period during which any person serves as an Executive Officer of the Corporation shall not be counted as part of such six year period. Any such notice shall be deemed delivered on the earliest of the days it was personally delivered, deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope with postage prepaid, transmitted by electronic mail or transmitted by facsimile, as the case may be. Any Governor may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance of a Governor at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Governor attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, except with respect to consideration of amendments of these By-Laws.

5.6 Quorum. One-half of the entire Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board, provided, if less than a quorum of the Board is present at a meeting, a majority of the Governors present may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice. The Board may permit any or all Governors to participate in a regular or special meeting through the use of any means of communications by which all Governors participating may simultaneously hear, or have their words seen by, each other during the meeting. A Governor participating in a meeting by such means shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting for all purposes, including constituting a quorum.

5.7 Manner of Acting. Except as provided in Section 5.9 of these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the Governors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board, unless otherwise specified by the Articles creating the Corporation or these By-Laws.

Such consent by such Governors may be transmitted in any written or electronic form, including (without limitation) facsimile transmission or electronic mail.

5.10 Resignation and Removal. A Governor may resign at any time by delivering a notice to the Corporation. A resignation shall be effective when the notice is delivered. The Board may fill any vacancy. A Governor who fails to attend four meetings of the Board during any three-year period shall be considered to have resigned from the Board upon receipt of written notice from the President or the Secretary unless that Governor within ten days of receipt of such notice notifies the Board that he or she does not want to resign, and the Board subsequently determines that there has been no resignation. Whether or not to give such a notice is solely within the discretion of the President. A Governor may be removed, with or without cause, by the vote of a majority of Corporate Members present at any meeting of the Corporation or by the vote of a majority of the Governors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

5.11 Vacancies. If a vacancy occurs on the Board, the Board may fill the vacancy. If the Governors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the Board, they shall fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the Governors remaining in office. A Governor elected to fill a vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired term of such Governor's predecessor in office.

5.12 Reimbursement and Compensation.
